CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE & NARESH H.PATIL,JJ.

October 09, 2006.

P.C.

. The affidavit-in-reply filed by Smt. Monika Singh, Special Land Acquisition Officer No.1, Mumbai Pune Expressway on behalf of the respondent no.3 clearly states that after the notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 was published in respect of the petitioners' property in Survey No.83/2/B admeasuring 2 H. and 2 R. and situated at village Tathwade, the Government of Maharashtra dropped the said proposal and the petitioners' land has been deleted by the order dated 14/3/2002 passed by the Additional Commissioner, Pune and published in the Government Gazette dated 4th

April 2002. It is further stated that the mega city project which was proposed and for which the notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act was issued, has been shelved by the State Government and, therefore, even the second petition does not survive.

. Hence both these petitions do not survive any further and the same are dismissed as infructuous.

Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
